The following rules relating to the institution of the Degree of Master of Engineering and the Doctorate Degree [D.Litt., D.Sc., D.E., and D.Sc., (Anatomy and Physiology)] and the consequential amendment of Statutes and Ordinances are published for information.

(Government Order No. E. 1107—Uni. 27-40-58 of the 19th September 1941.)

By Order,
C. S. PICHAMUTHU,
Registrar.

A. Rules for the Degree of Master of Engineering (Ordinance 103D).

MASTER OF ENGINEERING.

Conditions of admission. A candidate for the degree of Master of Engineering shall have qualified for the degree of Bachelor of Engineering. He shall be permitted to present himself for the Master's Degree in Engineering provided that he has enrolled himself as a student of the College of Engineering for one academic year and worked as directed by the professor in charge of the subject concerned.

Scheme of Examination. The examination for the degree of Master of Engineering shall comprise a thesis and a viva voce examination. The thesis shall carry a maximum of 400 marks and viva voce a maximum of 100.

No candidate shall be declared to have passed the M.E. Degree Examination unless he obtains not less than 40 per cent of the marks in the thesis, 40 per cent of the marks in the viva voce, and 50 per cent of the aggregate marks for the whole examination. Successful candidates who obtain 60 per cent of the whole marks shall be placed in the first class in order of merit and the other successful candidates in the second class in alphabetical order.

Rules for the submission of thesis. (Same as for M.A. and M.Sc.).

B. Rules for the Doctorate Degree (Ordinance 116).

1. A candidate may present himself for a Doctorate Degree under the following conditions:—

DOCTOR OF LETTERS (D.LITT.)

A Bachelor of Arts Honours of the University, five years after qualifying for the B.A. Honours Degree.

A Master of Arts of the University, four years after qualifying for the M.A. Degree.

DOCTOR OF SCIENCE (D.Sc.)

A Bachelor of Science Honours of the University, five years after qualifying for the B.Sc. Honours Degree.

A Master of Science of the University, four years after qualifying for the M.Sc. Degree.

DOCTOR OF ENGINEERING (D.E.).

A Bachelor of Engineering of the University, five years after qualifying for the B.E. Degree.

A Master of Engineering of the University, four years after qualifying for the M.E. Degree.

DOCTOR OF SCIENCE (D.Sc.)—ANATOMY, PHYSIOLOGY.

An M.B.B.S. of the University, five years after qualifying for the M.B.B.S. Degree.

2. The degree may be conferred either on the basis of published papers or on a thesis specifically prepared for the degree in conjunction with published papers.

3. The application for the degree must be sent on or before the 9th January in any year, after the lapse of the period prescribed in rule 1 supra.

4. The candidate shall state in his application the special subjects within the purview of the ordinances pertaining to his previous qualifying degree, upon a knowledge of which he rests his qualification for the Doctorate, and shall with his application submit three copies, printed or typewritten, of the thesis, or three sets of published papers presented by him. The thesis or papers presented shall embody the results of research work carried out by the candidate and shall form an original contribution to learning, tending to the advancement of the knowledge in the subject concerned.

5. The thesis or the papers shall be accompanied by a declaration signed by the candidate that they have been composed by himself and a certificate that they have not previously formed the basis for the award of any Degree, Diploma, Associateship, Fellowship or other similar title.

The candidate shall not be precluded from producing work already submitted for a degree or diploma by way of proof that he has done other original work.

6. The candidate shall indicate generally in a preface to the thesis or the paper as the case may be, and specially in notes the sources from which his information is taken, the extent to which he has availed himself of the work of others, and the portions of the thesis which he claims as orignal; he shall also state whether his research has been conducted independently, or in co-operation with others and in what respect his investigations appear to him to tend to the advancement of knowledge or otherwise form a valuable contribution to the literature of the subject dealt with. He shall also state the nature and extent of any guidance and advice that he may have received from any one during the progress of research with full particulars regarding the person from whom it has been received.

7. The University Council shall, in consultation with the Board of Studies concerned, appoint a Board of three examiners, none of whom shall be a member of the teaching staff of this University, for valuing each thesis.

8. The Board of Examiners may hold a viva voce examination of any of the candidates whose thesis or publications are referred to them and shall report the result of the examination to the University Council. The University Council shall decide whether the candidate has qualified for the degree or not. The decision shall be notified in the Mysore Gazette.

9. The fee to be sent along with the application for the examination shall be Rs. 200.

10. A successful candidate shall publish his thesis, unless it has been already published before the award of the degree at a convocation and it shall bear the following inscription: "Thesis approved for the Degree of Doctor of.....in the University of Mysore."
